DESCRIPTION

Get ready to be swept away by the enchanting "Musica Maestro," a one-of-a-kind interactive performance by Elisa Gallo Rosso.

Imagine this: A charismatic conductor strolls through the festival, armed with a speaker, sheet music, and a twinkle in her eye. With a wave of her baton, she'll transform unsuspecting passersby into a spontaneous choir, handing out musical scores and inviting everyone to join the symphony.

But that's just the beginning! The "Musica Maestro" embraces the unexpected, turning everyday sounds - the honk of a car, the cry of a seagull, the laughter of children - into musical notes. With a little encouragement, the audience will become both performers and composers, creating a unique soundscape reflecting the vibrant energy of the festival.

And who knows, you might even find yourself playing a makeshift instrument, adding your own rhythm to the symphony. The "Musica Maestro" promises an unforgettable experience, where the lines between performer and audience blur, and the magic of music fills the streets
